

Display STAR WARS on your desktop!
Check out our Star Wars Screenthemes today!

CLICK HERE

STAR WARS.com

WELCOME
WHAT'S NEW
THE MOVIES
BEYOND THE MOVIES
GAMING
COMMUNITY
KIDS
SHOP
HYPERSPACE™

DATABANK

Welcome Kyle Katarn The Rebel Agent

SEARCH

sign off | your settings | your collection | site help

HYPERSPACE™

WHAT IS THE FAN CLUB?

ABOUT HYPERSPACE MEMBER EXCLUSIVES MEMBER EXTRAS

starwars.com > Hyperspace > Member Exclusives > Bantha Tracks Online > Feature

JUNE 19 ISSUE

NEARLY-ANNUAL WEDDING EDITION!

Bantha Tracks Nearly-Annual Wedding Edition | The Proposal | Star Wars: The Total Wedding | Get In Tracks!

Bantha Tracks Nearly-Annual Wedding Edition

June 19, 2007

Love is in the air . . . or maybe it's the Force. Star Wars fans have been proposing, marrying, and celebrating honeymoons, many of them at Star Wars Celebration IV last month in Los Angeles. Enjoy this wonderful collection of celebrations from everywhere.

Star Wars Wedding: Argentina

Solo, Princess Leia Organa
She had accomplished much at a young age...

READ MORE

RELATED ARTICLES

- Feature: starwars.com @ Celebration II
- Feature: Tattooing the Galaxy
- Feature: Show Us Your Discs!
- Feature: Spring Break with Bantha Tracks

Diego Arevalo and Rebeca Ales were married in a beautiful Star Wars-inspired wedding in Argentina this past December.

"We called ours 'Episode X: The Wedding,'" writes Arevalo. "It was the first Star Wars Wedding in Argentina. I hope not the last one." Arevalo and Ales invited their friends to join them for the celebration via a specially-designed website.

The newlywed couple traveled to Los Angeles to attend Star Wars Celebration IV for their honeymoon, and competed in the Costume Pageant on the Petree Stage.

"What a honey moon hug?" writes Arevalo. "We were at the costume pageant and my wife won the third place in her category. I am really proud of her. That was the Episode IX for us." Rebeca is pictured here with Costume Pageant judges Dave and Lou Elsey, key creatives for Episode III Revenge of the Sith.

"I will love to be in the Bantha Tracks Nearly-Annual Wedding Issue!" concludes Arevalo.

It is our pleasure, Diego and Rebeca! All the best to the two of you for many years to come!

The Force That Binds

"Will and I got married almost a year ago, and we had some subtle Star Wars things at our wedding," writes the bride, Kristin. "We marched down the aisle to the Throne Room from the end of A New Hope, and all our friends were laughing because they knew what it was from."

Kristin wore her sterling silver Rebel Alliance pendant that Will had given her for their first Christmas together, and she dressed it up with rhinestones and put it on a silk ribbon to match her home-crafted dress.

"We danced to the Cantina Band One and Two at the reception and gave the children in attendance Star Wars LEGO kits and lightsaber candy."

Kristin says that the quote in their wedding invitations was one that Will wrote to her on their first Valentine's card four years ago: "You might say we're encouraged to love." The couple met many of the close friends at their wedding through the Star Wars community.

"I look forward to spending the next fifty years with Will," writes Kristin. "Kind of funny that we had our engagement party at Celebration III, and are celebrating our one-year anniversary at Celebration IV. What better way to spend it than with all our friends at one giant party!"

Many, many happy parties to come, Kristin and Will!

"We got married at the Elvis Honeymoon House in Palm Springs," writes bride Alexandra, "so I think people were expecting an Elvis theme. We did have Elvis sunglasses and pinkie rings in the bathroom, but mostly we went for a more space-age 60s vibe. Han & Leia were my special lil' nod to something I loved."

STARWARS.COM TOOLBOX

EMAIL THIS

DISCUSS THIS

ARCHIVES

© Lucasfilm 2007. All rights reserved. | Terms of Use | Privacy Policy | Business inquiries

LUCAS ONLINE